OPEN LETTER—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

SNOOK & CO.'S

Open Letter

To The Public.

As announced elsewhere we have admitted as partners four of our best known employees. At the same time we have made an important re-arrangement of our stocks, which we expect to result in the greater convenience and benefit of our patrons.

South Main Street Room will in the future be known as "Division A." It will contain all fabrics—Silks, Dress Goods, Linens, Domestic, etc.

Market Street Room will be known as "Division B," and will contain all Notions, Furnishings for Men and Women, Underwear, etc; it also embraces the Chinaware Department.

North Main Street Room will be known as "Division C." It will be the Ready-Made Department, and will include, Curtains, Mattings, Rugs, etc. Each of these three great divisions will be under expert management.

We will continue to handle only the choicest and best merchandise in largest quantities, and it will not be possible for any store to sell the same class of goods lower than we can sell it. If you have never traded with us, come in and get acquainted.

Our new spring stock is partly opened and will be swelled by daily additions. Many winter goods still here to close at lowest advertised prices.

The new firm makes a strong appeal for your patronage. Will you try it?

Thanking our customers for their liberal patronage in the past, we remain,

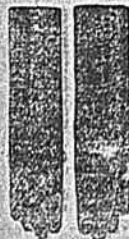

Yours for business,

GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

To the Klondike.

A party of young men from Sistersville will leave in a few weeks for the Alaska gold fields; in the party will be Henry M. Brilles, formerly of Wheeling, Harry Redmond, a well known oil man, and George MacCauley. In addition to those mentioned several others are considering the matter and it is likely there will be about six or eight in the party. The party expects to leave about the first of March.

Dixon-Finley Wedding.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Father Mullen solemnized the marriage of Mr. John Dixon, an employee of the Warwick pottery, to Miss Mamie Finley, also of the South Side. The attendants were Miss Rose Davis and Mr. Michael Finley. The wedding march was played by Miss Mamie Brady. The church was well filled with friends of the contracting parties during the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon will live on South Eoff street.

A coincidence, or a series of them, arises from the fact that about two weeks ago, in the same church, a Mr. John Dixon was married to Miss Bertha Driller, and two weeks hence, Mr. James P. Dixon, brother of the John that was married yesterday, will be married in the same church to Miss Agnes Devlin.

Gets a New Trial.

The civil action brought by Misses Annie B. Myers and Mary E. Jacobs against ex-Justice of the Peace George A. Arkle, was set for a new trial yesterday, by Squire Greer. It will come up next Monday. The case grew out of a suit for unlawful detainer. Misses Myers and Jacobs boarded on South Main street, and owing to a dispute when they left their boarding place, the proprietor seized the trunk. They then invoked Mr. Arkle's aid, and he succeeded in getting the trunk, but kept it when the ladies didn't pay the charges he imposed for his services.

Last night Squire Greer rendered judgment for the plaintiffs, ordering Mr. Arkle to give up the trunk and pay each of the plaintiffs $3 for damages. Mr. Arkle moved for a new trial and his attorney, John O. Pendleton, and M. F. Dryden, for the plaintiffs, argued the matter yesterday, resulting in a new trial being granted.

The Y. M. C. A. Concert.

The last performance of the Y. M. C. A. course was given last evening by the John Thomas concert company, consisting of John Thomas, Annie Webster Thomas and Albert Hopkins. Mr. Thomas is a success in his specialties. As a humorist, he captivates his hearers at once; in facial expression he excels, while his songs are given in a manner to suit the most exacting critic. As an elocutionist he far exceeds many who are posing as professionals. Mrs. Annie Webster handles the bow in a manner that calls forth all there is in the violin. She is an artist of no mean order. Albert Hopkins, the pianist, brings from the piano the sweetest of strains. Take it all in all this was one of the very best performances of the entire course, and the company will be welcomed to Wheeling at any time.

Some time in the spring the gymnasium exhibition will be given at the Opera House, by the gymnast classes, and those holding season tickets will be admitted free, except that ten cents will be charged for reserved seats.

These courses of lectures are becoming so popular that there is no trouble in the disposing of a full quota of tickets, and the future course will no doubt be all and more than those of the past, and that of this year have been.

AN INSANE MAN

Invades Moundsville and Takes Possession of

THE MAIN STREET OF THE TOWN

DEFYING OFFICERS AND CITIZENS ALIKE—FINALLY HE IS OVERPOWERED BY AN EX-GUARD OF THE "PEN" AND IS PLACED IN CONFINEMENT—HE WAS AN INMATE OF THE SPENCER INSANE ASYLUM UNTIL DISCHARGED AS "CURED."

Harvey Kenney, who was released from the asylum at Spencer last June and pronounced by the authorities there a cured man, was brought to Moundsville yesterday afternoon from his home on Fork Ridge, in Marshall county, and placed in jail, a raving lunatic. Monday evening his reason left him again and after breaking nearly all the furniture about his house and threatening to hang his wife, who, with their two little children, escaped by concealing herself, he left the house and started towards the house of a neighbor. When he arrived at this neighbor's, a Mr. Bartrobe, who lives a short distance from Kenney's home, he attacked a son of Bartrobe, a young man about eighteen years of age, but was prevented from doing him any injury.

Assistance soon came, when Kenney was bound and very carefully watched until he was lodged in jail. Instead of taking him to the justice's office, where he was brought to Moundsville, he was taken to the mayor's office and Squire Mann was sent for to commit him to jail. When Constable Gatts started to the jail with him, he refused to go, knocking Gatts down, and, but for the timely interference of J. F. Durler, might have done the officer serious injury. Gatts gathered himself up and left the office to get help. While he was gone Kenney cleared the office, throwing one man over the railing and just missed striking another on the head with a large block.

After making his way to the street he started toward the Johnson house. As he passed down the street everybody gave way before him and he had entire possession of the street. When opposite Gant's grocery store he picked up a small sled and threw it across the street, striking just below the large window of a clothing store. When he had gotten in front of the Johnson House, Gatts attempted to take charge of him again, but Kenney struck him over the head with a cuspidor. Just at this time, ex-Guard E. H. Fry, of the penitentiary, caught and threw him to the pavement. Officers Evans and Kilder coming up at this time, he was easily lodged in jail.

CHRISTIE AND KELLY

Released From the Penitentiary and Come to This City.

Harry Christie and Thomas D. Kelly, the men who were pardoned on Monday by Governor Atkinson, after having served nine years and four months of a term of life imprisonment for the murder of Police Officer Joe Glenn, of Wheeling, were released from the state penitentiary yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and late in the afternoon the pair came up to Wheeling. They were entertained at supper by ex-Councilman James A. Filan, of the Fifth ward, who was the foreman of the jury that convicted them, and who has been energetic lately in his efforts to secure a pardon for the men. They seemed to appreciate the attention paid them by Mr. Filan. Last evening they visited police headquarters, and were interviewed by Lieutenant Supler. They have not made any definite plans. They are both expert broom makers, having that learned that trade at the penitentiary, and may embark in business making brooms. They spent last night at Mr. Filan's house.

AN ELOPEMENT

Is What the Escapade of Moundsville Young Folks Looks Like.

It was reported in Moundsville yesterday that the sudden disappearance of Miss Lottie Hunter, of that town, and Mr. Herman McDonald, of Cameron, was the result of an elopement. Monday night, Miss Hunter left Moundsville in company with Mr. McDonald, taking a street car to Benwood, after which they took the Baltimore & Ohio midnight express for Oakland, Md., the Mecca of elopers. Last night they hadn't returned to be forgiven.

A DECIDED IMPROVEMENT.

The New Piano Warehouses of the F. W. Baumer Co. Nearing Completion.

On scarcely recognizes the store of the F. W. Baumer Company, especially the piano warehouses on the second floor. The carpenters have been busy the past week and have changed the once large room into a series of small parlors eighteen to twenty feet square. The paper hangers and decorators are now beautifying the walls and ceilings and soon the painters will complete the changes which have made the rooms seem like a well-arranged flat in one of our large cities.

There can be but one thing said of the change. It is one of the most novel and yet practical arrangements for the display of pianos we have ever seen and must prove immensely popular among this company's many patrons.
